Hilscher North America Announces Personnel Changes in Management

Hilscher North America Inc. welcomes Tim Pauls as Interim Managing Director. He succeeds Phil Marshall who left the company this year.

Tim recently headed two product management teams at Hilscher's headquarters and will lead the U.S. office for the transition phase. With over 10 years of product management experience with Hilscher, Tim will continue to enhance Hilscher North America's strong market presence and to ensure future growth.

Phil has been an integral part of our company's success in North America. "On behalf of the whole Hilscher family, we say thank you, Phil," states Sebastian Hilscher, CEO of Hilscher. "We hope that he will be able to enjoy more quality time with his family while also dedicating himself to the personal pursuits and passions that were set aside as he built the successful Hilscher North America business. We wish him all the best in his new adventures!".
